THIRTEEN DIVORCES. & Smary, Bird, Thayor v6

SEVEN OF THE UNHAPPY MAR-RIAGES OCCURRED IN KANSAS.

TEN COUPLES WERE CHILDLESS

ONE PAIR WHO LIVED TOGETHER UP TO HOUR OF THE DECREE.

Drunkenness and Non-Support Play Prominent Parts in the Domestic Dramas Presented in the Circuit Court-Doings in the Courts.

Of the thirteen divorces granted in the circuit court yesterday seven were of marriages made in Kansas. Ten of the couples that were divorced had no children, which tends to prove the assertion made some time ago by Judge Scarritt that the majority of divorces are the result of childless 3 marriages.

The divorce given to Phebe L. Bridgeford was an unsatisfactory surprise to the husband, Frank C. Bridgeford. Mrs. Bridgeford was given judgment for $25 a month alimony, the household furniture and the custody of the children. An hour after the divorce was granted Bridgeford, who is a barber, rushed into Judge Henry's court and said the divorce was unfair. "Durn her pictur"," he said; "she got that divorce by misrepresentation. She told me divorce by misrepresentation. She told me the trial wouldn't come up for months, and here she's sneaked out this morning and got it. And I gave her money this very morning. She has been living with me right along."

Bridgeford went to get a lawyer to file a motion for hinew trial.

John Mahan, who was marrier May 26,
1888, in Karsas, was divorced from Rena Mahan. He testified that she would not nurse him when he was sick, but said she did not care if he died. He accused her of adultery with Wash Hill. They have no children.

adultery with Wash Hill. They have no children.
Mary E. Davis was given a divorce from Joel Davis, a gripman on the Westport car line. They were married in 1886, and have two children. She said that he spent his wages gambling, and she had to work in a laundry.

Frequent sullen spells, during which he would take out his knife and sharpen it and glare at his wife, was the cause of the divorce given to Mary Downing from Henry Downing. They were married September 26, 1895, in Kansas. They had no children.

Mattie E. Volls told to Judge Henry t.

Mattie E. Voils told to Judge Henry & good many reasons why she ought to be divorced from Otis E. Voils. They were married in this city in 1892, and have no children. She says he is a drunkard and a libertine. All that he ever gave her was a calico dress. In Cripple Creek he beat her, she says, because she would not play a piano in a disreputable house.

Charles B. Kohl was freed from Sallie Kohl, who married him to spite another girl. They were married in Wyandotte, Kas., in March, 1897, and had no children. Other divorces granted were:

Hattie M. Fitch from Georges D. Fitch; married November II, 1884, at Louisburg, Kas.; no children; cause of divorce, desertion.

Mary B. Blackledge, from What tion.

Mary B. Blackledge from Elmer E.

Blackledge; married May 11, 1896; no children; cause of divorce, neglect and non-support.

Minnie May Frederick from Abraham L.
Frederick: married May 17, 1888, in Harper county, Kas.; no children; cause of divorce, non-support and abandonment.
John Reed from July Reed; married July 18, 1894, in this city; no children; cause of divorce, unfaithfulness.
Mary McCord, from Mary Mary McCord from William McCord; married July, 1882, in Olathe, Kas.; no chil-dren; cause of divorce, non-support and de-sertion Neilie V. Caldwell from George T. Caldwell; married February 22, 1889, in Gibson City. Ill.; no children; cause of divorce, drunkenness. drunkenness.

William Cowing from Harriette Cowing:
married August, 1885, in Fort Scott, Kas.;
no children; cause of divorce, adultery.

WILL SOON BE ADJUSTED.

Administrator of H. W. King's Estate Will Probably Soon Be Relieved of His Duties.

Dr., W. C. Richardson, public administrator of St. Louis county, came to Kansas City yesterday morning to assist his attorney, Mr. W. W. Henderson, in the effort to take charge of the store of Browning, King & Co., under letters of administra-tion on the estate of H. W. King, one of the deceased partners, Colonel H. L. Hatch, manager of the house here, had declined to surrender authority when it was demanded Tuesday morning, as was exclusively told in The Journal yesterday, but yesterday morning after consultation with his attorneys and telegrams from the representatives of the other partners, his objections were withdrawn and Public Administrator Richardson was allowed to take charge of the firm's business here. This will render unnecessary the hearing that was to take place in the probate court to-day.

Under the direction of Dr. Richardson, Colonel Hatch will remain as manager, no changes in employees will be made, and the business will proceed as usual. Dr. Richardson has information that the surviving partners will soon have arrangements completed for purchasing the interest in the time left by Mr. King. This will make the supervision of the administrator brief. manager of the house here, had declined to

INCREASED ASSESSMENTS.

Big Changes Made in the Valuations of Personal Property of Large Corporations.

The county board of equalization made large raises yesterday in the assessed valuation of the personal property of several large corporations. The board will meet as a board of appeals April 25, 26 and 27 to hear remonstrances against the raises made and to fix final valuations. The principal changes made were as follows: Metropolitan Street Railway Company, from $22,334 to $600,000.
American Biscuit Company, from $2,480 user-Busch Brewing Company, from $4,560 to $15,000 Bernheimer Bros., from $5,000 to $10,000. Val Blatz Brewing Company, from $3,500

Burnham, Hanna, Munger & Co., from Kansas City, Missouri, Gas Company, from $308,089 to $500,000. Missouri and Kansas Telephone Com-pany, from $25,000 to $50,000.

A VICTORY FOR MRS. FINCH.

She Is Awarded the Property in Which She and Her Husband Made Their Home.

Mrs. Lauretta Finch was given judgment yesterday against James G. Finch, for $1,000, to be realized out of the sale of their home. This virtually places the home in ossession of Mrs. Finch as its value was sessed by the court at $1,250. There was considerable speculation yes-terday around the court house as to what relations Mr. and Mrs. Finch would sustain to each other hereafter. They are yet tain to each other hereafter. They are yet husband and wife. Mrs. Finch testified during the trial of her suit for maintenance that she and her husband were the happiest couple on earth until Miss Maggie Baddridge won her husband's affection. Miss Baldridge has deserted Finch, if she was ever anything to him, and testified against him in court. It is pretty well understood that Mrs. Finch would take her husband back, in spite of his mistreatment of her. Now that he has lost his home he may conclude to live with her.

A QUICK MURDER TRIAL.

All the Evidence Introduced Yesterday and the Arguments Will End To-day.

The trial of James Brown, a negro, the murder of Henry Prather lasted all yesterday in the criminal court. The hearup of evidence was finished yesterday becourt adjourned. Brown's plea was self-defense and Judge Wofford instructed the jury that it must find Brown guilty of murder in the first or second degree or acquit him on the ground of self-defense. Arguments in the case will be made to the jury this morning.

The evidence yesterday was very contradictory. The testimony for the state indicated that it was an unprovoked murder. Witnesses for Brown swore that Prather threatened to kill Brown on sight and came to the house four times looking for Brown. The fourth time Brown shot him. The quarrel between the men was about a woman.

WANTS FRANCHISES TAXED.

Mr. Julian Claims They Are Taxable Under the Law the Same as

Stocks and Bonds. Attorney Henry S. Julian appeared before the county board of equalization yester-day and demanded that the franchises of orporations in this county be taxed. He said franchises were property the same as stocks and bonds and were taxable under the law. The board referred the question to County Counselor Reed for his opinion.

Court Briefs.

Judge Henry made an order yesterday for seventy-live jurors to appear in his court Tuesday, April 26. F. H. Newton, the dentist at Ninth and Main, gave a bill of sale on his office outfit to Robert L. Winter for $35.

J. J. Esmond gave a chattel mortgage on his drug stock and fixtures at 3618 Inde-pendence avenue to John Brooks for $179. Evangeline I. Roy, who is suing her hus-band, Arthur O. Roy, for divorce, was given judgment against him yesterday for $35 additional alimony.

Edward A. Riehl gave a chattel mort-gage yesterday on his hardware stock, furniture and fixtures at 1513 Genesee street to Miss Carrie Riehl for $550. Aloysius M. Lowrey was given judgment vesterday for $6,156 against James R. An-lerson, Willard E. Winner and the Win-ner Investment Company on a note given in 1891.

cial Club-Ex-Mayors to Be Invited to Be Present.

Colonel Milton J. Payne, the fourth may or of Kansas City and one of its earliest pioneers, will deliver an address before the Commercial Club next Tuesday evening on the subject, "Kansas City, Its Birth, Strug-gles and Triumphs." Mayor Jones and every hving ex-mayor of Kansas City has een invited to be present at this meeting, been invited to be present at this meeting, which will be the closing one to be held by the Commercial Club prior to the summer vacation. Following Colonel Payne's address the remainder of the meeting will be devoted to fun and refreshments, unless some one informally reviews the splendid administration of President Barton as the head of the club.

Ccionel Payne was elected mayor of Kansas City in 1853 to fill the unexpired term of John Johnson, deceased, the third mayor of the city. Colonel Payne was re-elected consecutively for four terms, retiring in 1853 to be elected again in 1852 for another term. He ocupied the office more terms and more years than any other mayor of the city.

The living ex-mayors of Kansas City are Colonel M. J. Payne, Colonel R. T. Van Horn, A. L. Harris, of Durango, Col.; Major William Warner, United States district attorney; Colonel R. H. Hunt, E. L. Martin, Judge Turner A. Gill, Judge James Gibson, Leander J. Talbott, of Bowlder, Col.; Colonel John W. Moore, Henry C. Kumpf, Ben Holmes, J. J. Davenport, Congressman W. S. Cowherd, Webster Davis, assistant secretary of the interior, and Mayor James M. Jones, The other mayors of Kansas City are all deceased. Following is the complete list:

FOR THE SPRING RUN. The Distilleries of This Revenue District Are Getting Ready to Start Up.

The distilleries of this revenue district are all starting up for the spring run and luring the next three months they will turn out the distilled product of Missouri corn at the rate of 7,000 parrels per month. The big distilleries at Lone Jack and Waldron are both in operation and about twenty of the smaller ones are also busily engaged. The big distillery at Southwest Ity, belonging to the Honey Creek Distillery Company, that was destroyed a few weeks ago with about 10,000 gallons of whisky, is to be replaced with a smaller one. The company has already notified the revenue office here of the fact and will be ready for business within ten days.
